

Ramon Kassam is an artist from Limerick City in Ireland and a graduate of the Limerick School of Art and Design. He has been exhibiting regularly since 2010. Exhibitions include: Limerick City Gallery of Art (2015 Solo), EVA International – Ireland's Biennale, Limerick (2014), Pallas Projects, Dublin, (solo 2013), Arca Archa, Boston, USA (2012), Occupy Space, Limerick, (solo 2010). Exhibitions in 2016 include; 'Works' a solo exhibition at Green on Red Gallery - Dublin , The Lewis Glucksman Gallery - Cork, and The Eli and Edythe Broad Art Museum in Michigan (US).

He has received a number of awards and residencies. These include The 16 x 16: Next Generation Bursary Award, a special initiative of the Arts Council and the Ireland 2016 Centenary Programme, in recognition of the role of artists in the events of 1916. Residencies include; Temple Bar Gallery an Studios Project Award, The Embassy of Ireland in Addis Ababa - Project Residency, The RHA Tony O' Malley Residency Award and Irish Museum of Modern Art. In addition to his practice Kassam founded and was a Director of both Wickham Street Studios, an artist studio complex, and Occupy Space, a visual arts exhibition space, in Limerick City from 2009-2011.